Coral Springs, FL, August 17, 2004....ACCESSITY CORP. [NASDAQ SMALLCAP: ACTY] reported that its pretax loss from continuing operations decreased 70% from $476,000 in the second quarter of 2003 to $145,000 in the second quarter of 2004, or $331,000. The decrease was largely attributable to a non-recurring income item of approximately $280,000 which resulted from an arbitration award granted to the Company in its claim for wrongful termination of a Memorandum of Understanding with Presidion Solutions, Inc. in which the two companies contemplated merging. The Company's net losses in the 2004 quarter equated to $.06 per basic and diluted share. In the comparable quarter of 2003, the net loss was $.20 per basic and diluted share, including losses from continuing operations of $.22, offset by income from the discontinued affinity service operations of $.02 per share. On a year-to-date basis, the Company's net loss from continuing operations decreased from $1,100,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2003 to $569,000 for the comparable period in 2004. The Company's net losses for these periods equated to $.25 per basic and diluted share in 2004 versus $.42 per share in 2003 (net of income from discontinued operations of $.09).

The Company's reduced losses for the six months of the 2004 resulted not only from the arbitration award noted above, but also from the operations of Sentaur, its medical claim audit and recovery service to hospitals, which had only begun generating revenues for a few months during 2003 but was operational for the entire six months during 2004. As a result, Sentaur's revenues increased $267,000 on a year-to-date basis. However, despite the increased revenue level, it was not profitable during the current quarter, and has not been profitable or able to contribute to the corporate overhead expenses on a cumulative basis.

Barry Siegel, Chief Executive Officer, noted that the Company is in a strong position financially, with no debt and reduced operating expenses. Current assets total $4.2 million including cash and investments of $3.8 million and a note receivable related to its arbitration award of $181,000.

The Company also held an investor conference call last week, in a matter unrelated to its earnings, regarding its definitive agreement to acquire Pacific Ethanol, Inc., Kinergy Marketing, LLC and Re-Energy, LLC in a stock-for-stock share exchange which would result in a change of control. In the conference call, (which can be heard on the website at pacificethanol.net) selected executives from each of the parties discussed the substantial progress being made on the due diligence, the increasing demand in the ethanol market and its potential, as well as expected near term plans for Accessity Corp. to submit its proxy to the Securities and Exchange Commission for review prior to the mailing to shareholders for their vote. The transaction is subject to satisfaction of due diligence, shareholder approval and certain other additional conditions.
